

Admission and Enrollment

1. Candidates who satisfy the requisite qualifications and other criteria prescribed in curriculum of the course(s) or such qualifications recognized as equivalent to either of the requisite qualifications prescribed by the University, shall be considered for admission to the concerned programme(s). The University may decide to prescribe single or multiple criterion for admission to various programmes including qualifying marks, entrance test, interview, counseling, direct admission or any other basis as per the specific requirements of the particular programme(s) and the weightage to be assigned for various admission criterion shall be as prescribed by the University from time to time.
2. The University may decide to make admission of the students to the various programmes on the basis of merit, and/or on the counseling or entrance tests or interviews conducted by the University or any other University or Board or any other body, and/or on any other basis, as decided by the University. The University may decide to make admission to the resultant vacant seats, due to any reason, of any programme(s) on First-Come-First-Serve basis or otherwise, as deemed fit.
3. The University may decide to conduct entrance tests, interviews, counseling or any other test or examination for admission of the students on its own or with the help of any other University, Board, Institution or any other body, as deemed fit.
4. Unless otherwise provided, only such candidates shall be eligible for admission to the Faculty(s) or Departments of the University who qualify the prescribed eligibility criteria from a University/Board/Council/Institute or any other body recognized as equivalent as decided by the University from time to time.
5. The admission to the various programmes will be made once or twice in the year or as decided by the University. 6. The admission of Foreign Nationals, NRIs, PIOs or such other category, as decided by the University, for a following term/academic year may be made in the preceding term/academic year or otherwise as deemed necessary, to manage the procedural and related formalities well in time before the start of the following term/academic year.
7. The schedule for the admission, application form and other documents for admission to the Faculty(s) or Departments shall be as decided by the University, subject to the amendments made from time to time.
8. The University reserves the right to discontinue any programme(s) or to cancel admissions made in any programme(s) or not to make admission to any programme or to take any other appropriate decision for any academic year, due to lesser number of admissions or direction of any statutory authority or any other reason, whatsoever, as deemed fit. The students, in such a case, already admitted to such programme(s) shall have no other right to claim except the fee deposited with the University.
9. The University may decide to reserve certain number of seats out of the General/Open Category seats or to create such number of additional seats for such students like, NRIs, Foreign Nationals, PIOs, Industry Personnel and Students Sponsored by NRIs, Foreign Nationals, PIOs and Industry and such other students, as deemed necessary, to be precisely termed as NRI and allied Category seats, in any or all the programme(s) offered at the University and/or its faculty(s) or department(s) in any academic session, at any time.
10. An overseas student belonging to Foreign Nationals, NRIs, PIOs or such other category shall himself/herself be responsible to obtain the educational visa and necessary clearances from the competent authorities and to fulfil other requirements, necessary for his/her study in India for pursuing programme(s) of study at the University.
11. Minimum qualifications and procedure for admission to the various programmes shall be as laid down in the Act, Statutes and curriculum of the University made from time to time. Provided that the University may decide to make any amendment/ modification regarding the eligibility criteria prescribed for the particular programme(s) as deemed necessary from time to time.
12. The University may make mandatory the submission of any certificate or document for the students before or at the time of admission or afterwards, for the purpose of admission or otherwise, as decided by the University.

13. (a) There will be forty percent seats of the total intake capacity for the various programmes in the University, its faculty(s) and departments located in the State of Uttarakhand, termed as reserved seats for Domicile/ Residents of Uttarakhand and the remaining sixty percent seats will be termed as Open/General Category seats to be filled up by the candidates residing in any part of India including Uttarakhand.
(b) If sufficient numbers of candidates are not available to fill 40% of seats in each programme reserved for Uttarakhand domiciles, such vacant seats shall be filled by the candidates of other states of India.
14. The eligibility criteria for Uttarakhand Domicile/Resident shall be that the candidate must be a resident of Uttarakhand State as per the policy of the Uttarakhand Government for the time being in force.
15. (a) The University shall adhere to the State Policy in respect of reservation made by the State Government under the Constitution of India or any other law for the time being in force for reserving seats for different categories of candidates. (
(b) If sufficient numbers of candidates are not available in a particular Reserved Category(s) (by whatever name it may be called), such vacant seat shall be transferred to the General Category seats (by whatever name it may be called).
16. The University may decide to make provisions for the reservation of seats out of the Open/General Category seats or to create additional number of seats, in all or any of the programmes, for employees of the University and/or their wards, candidates sponsored by the placement-oriented industry and institutions and such other categories as decided by the University, from time to time, to be termed as Privileged Category seats or Specific Category seats.
17. Candidates seeking admission under the reserved categories shall be required to fulfil the prescribed conditions and eligibility criteria of the admission to a particular programme, as detailed in the admission brochure, prospectus, booklets, rules, order, instructions and any other informative material or document published or issued from time to time.
18. A candidate shall only be admitted to the programme on his enrolment as a student of the University after paying the fee prescribed for the concerned programme and fulfilling all the conditions and requirements laid down by the University.
19. Every student, at the time of admission or afterwards as required by the University, may be required to sign a declaration on oath that he or she shall submit himself or herself to the disciplinary jurisdiction of the authorities, officers, employees and persons of the University and such other persons who may be vested with such powers under the Act, Statutes, Rules, Orders, Codes, Manuals, Circulars, Memos, Instructions, Guidelines, Procedures, Policies, Schemes etc., that have been framed thereunder by the University.
20. Every student shall himself be responsible for any sort of damage or disability or loss arising out of personal injury or death or due to any reason during the programme of his stay in the University (within or outside the precincts of the University). The University shall not be liable for any claim or compensation or any legal action or in any other manner to the student or legal representatives of the students or any other person or authority, in any manner.
21. Every student shall himself be responsible for any illegal or fraudulent action or malpractice or likewise done by the student for any purpose, whatsoever, during his stay in the University (within or outside the precincts of the University). No suit or any other legal proceedings shall lie against the University or any officer or employee or person of the University for any such act of the student or likewise, in any manner.
22. Every student, at the time of admission or afterwards as required by the University, may be required to submit an indemnity bond or otherwise to indemnify to the University against all rights and claims by the student himself, his dependants, next of kin and other legal representatives or any other individual, authority or body, for any legal action or compensation or in another manner for, any fraudulent or illegal act or malpractice, and any other reason, whatsoever, during and after the completion of his study in the University.
23. Every student, at the time of admission or afterwards, may be required to submit such declaration(s), undertaking(s) and/or endorsement(s), by the student himself or his parent(s) or guardian or other legal representatives or any other person for any sort of compliance, conduct, payment of fees, penalty, dues etc., and to any other effect, whatsoever, as decided by the University.

24. Any information or statement related to the University like collaborations, tie-ups, agreement, future plans, etc., in the prospectus, websites, advertisement etc., or otherwise provided by the University, at any time, shall only be for the general information and should not be construed as the basis of admission of any student in the University and the student shall himself be responsible for acting on the basis of such information or statement. The University shall not be responsible at any time for any kind of compensation or otherwise.
25. The University may decide to make mandatory, the use of laptop and/or other study equipments, dress code and such other facilities/provisions at the University, and/or enrollment in certain workshops, training, project, visits etc., arranged by the University for the students or otherwise, on payment of such fee and/or charges as prescribed by the University from time to time. The University may alternatively decide to collect such fee and/or charges on lump sum basis at the time of admission or in installment afterwards, as deemed necessary.
26. The University may decide to make mandatory the participation of any or all the student(s) in non-academic, academic support, cultural, sports, extra-curricular, social work, such other activities, as deemed necessary from time to time.
27. The provisions related to the enrollment and allied matters of the students shall be laid down in the Rules and/or Orders, Codes, Manuals, Circulars, Memos, Procedures, Policies, Schemes and such other documents of the University as may be framed from time to time.
28. Notwithstanding anything contained in the provisions relating to these Rules, the University may conduct various entrance tests, examinations or any other test on its own or with the help of any other University/ Institution/ Body for admission to the programmes of the other Universities/Institutions or any other body, as decided by the University from time to time.
29. The admission of the student(s) to the respective programme(s), as applied for, shall stand provisional unless and until confirmed by the University and shall also be subject to the cancellation as per the Statutes, Rules, Disciplinary conduct, Orders, Instructions, Systems, Policies, Guidelines etc., of the University, as are in force and amended from time to time.