

ACS International Student Chapter in Uttarakhand University

(ACS-UU International Chapter)

The ACS international student chapter was established during International Conference on New Horizons in Green Chemistry and Technology (ICGCT-2018), which was organized by the School of Applied and Life Sciences (SALS) on November 27th-28th, 2018 at Uttarakhand University (UU). The conference was sponsored and supported by ACS-USA and SSRN-Elsevier. Establishment of an ACS chapter at UU was made by Efforts of Prof. Ajay Singh and all participants of conference were given free membership of ACS.

All ACS-chapter members of society have wider scope of joining a vast network of researchers worldwide and will be provided support to participate in various conferences, sponsorship of projects and pursue their further education overseas. The ACS society may support its members /students in the following ways:

- Facilitating the organization of seminars and conferences.
- Assistance for participation in overseas seminars and conferences.
 - Assistance in organising of scientific events for colleges and schools in the city.
- Networking with researchers in for learning and skill development.
 - Additionally, it will enable students to stay updated on the most recent research and happenings in the field of Chemical & allied Sciences.

The official members of the society are as follows- (2023-24)
